

KNOW YOUR KIDS AND THEIR NEEDS

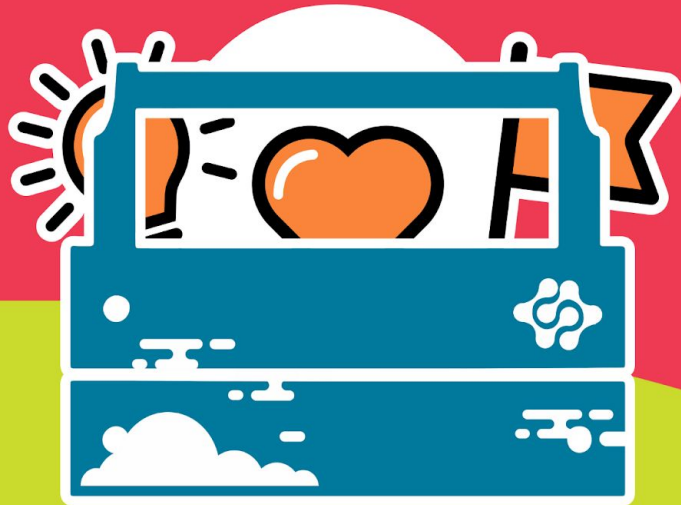

My students' wellbeing is vital, but I can't balance remote teaching and SEL.

Solution: We integrated the CASEL Signature Practices into each formative task slide deck, and made it easy to customize.

Solves 8 Problems of Practice Educators are Facing Daily

I need to strengthen asynchronous student engagement and empowerment.

Solution: Our toolkit's asynchronous tasks can be used to engage students in high quality deliberate practice while teachers are providing targeted instruction with small groups.

HACKING ASSESSMENT REMOTE EDITION

1 Involve students in the assessment process

2 Make reflection and self-assessment a key part of learning

3 Provide strategic feedback regularly

4 Adjust pacing as needed

5 Do NOT grade formative work just to fill a box

6 Keep learning tasks about real world problems

7 Check in with students about their SE Needs

8 Check for understanding regularly

9 Focus on what matters
